Dear Potential Sponsor,

This year we are taking part of a regional Northwest Indian Youth Conference hosted by the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes and the Fort Hall Youth Council. The conference will be held March 17-21, 2019. The 2019 Northwest Indian Youth Conference theme is, "Empowering People & Inspiring Communities" (EPIC).

Some of the essential topics that will be covered at this conference are (but are not limited to):

- Leadership (Political/Indigenous/Cultural/Social/Activism)
- Leadership Skill Building and Communications
- Social Media/Digital Storytelling
- Film
- Art (song, music, dance, etc.)
- Youth Entrepreneurship
- Healthy Life skills
- Healthy Relationships
- Healthy Active Lifestyles
- Suicide Prevention
- Anti-Bullying
- Plant Medicine
- Traditional Archery
- Preparing for the Workforce
- Cultural Arts & Craft (Beadwork, Traditional Men/Women Roles, Ribbon Dress, Purse, Moccasin, Drum Stick, Hide Tanning, Horseback Riding/Relay, Traditional Native Games, Cultural Foods, etc)

It is anticipated that we will have well over 400-500 registrants for this event from all over the Northwest region and throughout the United States. While we are in the early planning stages, our intent is to bring noted speakers and recognized experts in various planning fields to compliment general sessions, breakout sessions and ample time for networking.

You can imagine funding an event of this caliber can be costly, and we are seeking sponsors to assist in contributing to our costs. We are offering several sponsorship levels:

- Title Sponsor (1 Available) $5,000
- Platinum Sponsors (4 Available) $2,500
- Silver Sponsors $1,000
- Bronze Sponsors $500

Sponsorship comes with several benefits, detailed on the Sponsorship Form, such as recognition at the conference and on conference materials and digital media, as well as free event registration. We hope that you will support the 2019 Northwest Indian Youth Conference by becoming a sponsor, and completing the attached Intent to Support Form.

Thank you for your support!
